TEACHING ADULTS MATTERS!

Scott Graham

SESSION NOTES:

It matters for the individual.

- Knowledge of the Word of God protects the hearer from self-destructive choices.

It matters for the individual's family.

- When an adult is solidly grounded in truth, he or she is able to influence family members positively by transmitting those scriptural principles to children, a spouse, extended family, and others.

It matters for the individual's church.

- While children and youth are vital to a church's health, Scripturally-founded adults provide the backbone of a solid Apostolic church.

QUESTIONS FOR REFLECTION AND DISCUSSION:

1. Who was a teacher in your past whose influence on you is evident in your teaching now?
2. What do you believe is the most significant contribution that spiritual strong adults bring to a congregation?
