TEACHING CHURCHED AND UNCHURCHED YOUTH AT THE SAME TIME

Andrew Fisher

SESSION NOTES:

1. Principles from Jesus

- Meet people where they are (John 4)
- Use stories and questions (parables)
- Build relationships before giving instruction (Luke 19)

2. Teaching Strategies

- One message, two levels: clarity and depth
- Use real-life situations and Bible truth
- Explain church language naturally

3. Engagement Tips

- Create a culture of love.
- Use open questions: “What do you think?” and “Why do you think that?”
- Encourage church youth to mentor others.

4. Scripture Anchors

- Romans 15:7 – Acceptance
- Hebrews 4:12 – Power of Scripture
- Galatians 6:1 – Restoration in gentleness
- Ephesians 2:10 – Identity in Christ
- I Corinthians 12:12 – Unity in diversity

5. Final Encouragement

- God uses both new and seasoned hearts.
- Be patient, be consistent, be Christlike.

QUESTIONS FOR REFLECTION AND DISCUSSION:

1. How can you build your relationships with your students as you teach them?
2. What will you do to help teach church and unchurched youth without leaving either group behind?
